Two new awards to be given at Jaycees' DSA Banquet

Two new awards will be presented at Friday's Distinguished Service Award Banquet, sponsored by the Hoopeston Jaycees.

Policeman of the Year and Fireman of the Year were added to the list of awards, which also includes the Distinguished Service Award, Odell Crabtree Memorial Award (formerly Associate of the Year), Boss of the Year, Jaycee of the Year and Rookie of the Year.

The Distinguished Service Award winner has been selected by previous DSA winners and honors someone for their all-around contribution to the community.

The Crabtree Award, in its second year, will be given to a Jaycee who is past the mandatory group retirement age of 40 but who continues to contribute to the local organization. Jaycee of the Year and Rookie of the Year are presented to a seasoned and new member who have served the club well in the last year. Boss of the Year honors an employer who makes it possible for a member to fulfill organization obligations which sometimes conflict with work schedules.

A new Jaycee International Senator, the organization's most prestigious award, will also be presented at the banquet and the new Miss Hoopeston will be formally introduced.

The banquet will be held at the Hoopeston American Legion and will begin with a social hour at 6:30 p.m. followed by dinner at 7 p.m. Tickets are $10 per person and are available at the door or by calling Todd Rush at 283-6815.
