‘Reading Rocks’ local library’s Summer Reading Club

The Hoopeston Public Library hopes to show kids that “Reading Rocks.”

That is the theme of this year’s Summer Reading Club, which begins Monday at the library, 110 N. Fourth St. The program kicks off at 2 p.m. The program runs for four weeks, through July 1, with new books, crafts, stories, movies, special guests and a chance for youngsters to win prizes.

Children will meet by age group, including:

Fifth and sixth graders, 2-3 p.m. Mondays.

Third and fourth graders, 2-3 p.m. Tuesdays.

What goes around...

Ryan Morgan, a participant in the Hoopeston Area Youth Club’s Summer Fun Club, pushes the merry-go-round for Will Boose, Tara Sharlach, Clint Leemon, Olivia Smith, Jackie Smith and Sydni Wilson. The children, all first- and second-graders, were at McFerren Park Wednesday, playing while waiting for the swimming pool to open, said Summer Fun Club staff member Ginger Samet.

Food Cupboard says ‘thanks’

Anyone who has donated food, money or garden produce to the Grant Township Food Cupboard is invited to come to the township office from 10-11 a.m. Tuesday for refreshments.

Cookies, punch and coffee will be served as a thank you to those who have supported the food cupboard with donations during the last year.

The appreciation day will coincide with the Abbie D. Morgeson, 21, of 313 E. McCracken, was arrested at 7:27 p.m. Tuesday in the 100 block of West Penn.

Morgeson was charged with disobeying a railroad crossing signal, no insurance, illegal transportation of alcohol and illegal display of registration.

According to reports, an officer saw Morgeson disregard the crossing gates and lights at the Grant Township Food Cupboard Board’s monthly meeting.

Tree replacement

Hoopeston residents who had trees on city property damaged in last July’s storm and who want the trees replaced are asked to call city hall, 283-5833.

The city has a program to replace damaged trees at no cost to residents.
