Hoopeston woman crowned

Brittany Buss of Hoopeston was crowned Miss Vermilion County Fair Tuesday night.

Buss, 20, will reign over the fair and will represent the event at other activities during the coming year. She will represent Vermilion County at the Illinois County Fair Queen competition in January.

Buss was also awarded best interview.

Along with her crown, Buss will receive a $900 expense and clothing allowance for the state fair queen competition and a $150 scholarship.

Buss is a student at Danville Concept of Cosmetology.

Rossville plans July 4th

The Spears-Dukes American Legion Post 733, Sons of the American Legion and Auxiliary are planning an old fashioned Fourth of July.

Events start at 11 a.m. with a parade from Rossville-Alvin High School to Chrisman Park with a Legion fish fry following the parade at the park. Kids' games, a Little League tournament, Hooterville Iron car show and ice cream social are also planned before fireworks at dusk

Anyone wishing to be in the parade should be at the Wednesday at the CSX crossing on Main.

Police said Steven D. Schultz of Kankakee, in a 2001 Peterbilt, was stopped at the crossing when his engine stalled. A southbound train was approaching and the crossing arm dropped on the passenger side of the tractor fender. When Schultz got his truck running, he headed east, breaking the crossing arm to avoid the train.

Schultz was not injured.
