Neighborhood Watch

Vermilion County Sheriff Pat Hartshorn will be the featured speaker at the Hoopeston Neighborhood Watch meeting at 6 p.m. Monday, Sept. 9 at Country Terrace.

Everyone is invited to attend.

Health center business office moving

Hoopeston Regional Health Center's business office is moving to the Health Associates Building, 847 E. Orange. Formerly Dr. Oh's office, the building is between Chittick Family Eye Care and Drollinger Insurance.

The location was changed to allow customers easier access and increased privacy and comfort.

The change will be effective Sept. 16. Office hours will be 8:30 a.m.-5 p.m. Monday-Friday.

Registration for hospital-related services will remain in the hospital lobby.

Games, anyone?

County Terrace hosts area seniors for an afternoon of euchre and other games, the second and fourth Tuesday of each month. The fun begins at 1:30 p.m. Tuesday and is open to the public. For more information, call Charlene Ervin at 283-9215.

Gun locks available

The Hoopeston Police Department is offering free gun locks to the public.

The department has received a number of cable locks through a grant from the Illinois Lieutenant Governor's "Project Home Safe." Locks are limited to one per person and will be given on a first come-first serve basis.

For more information, call the police department at 283-5196.

Bowling signup

Registration is underway for junior bowlers (ages 8-12) and senior bowlers (13-20). Four-person teams will be formed. Signup ends Sept. 21. Bowling begins Saturday, Sept. 28.

There is a one-time sanction fee of $12 payable at sign-up or the first day of bowling and a $7 per week bowling fee.

Pee-wee sign up for children 3-7 is also underway until Sept. 14. First day to bowl will be Oct. 12, with 2:30 and 4 p.m. shifts.

Cost is $30 for the entire year, which includes a t-shirt, trophy and year-end banquet.

★ Police News ★

Douglas J. Brookwalter, 20, of 311 1st North St., Wellington, was arrested at 11 p.m. Thursday in the 400 block of North Market.

He was charged with assault on a complaint from a 19-year-old Hoopeston man who told police Brookwalter threatened him with bodily harm.

Brookwalter was released on $100 cash bond.

Jarred I. Stone, 21, of 215 E. Penn, was arrested Saturday in the 700 block of North Third St..

He was charged with unlawful use of a weapon, no firearms owner's identification card, no valid driver's license (ever obtained) and operating an uninsured motor vehicle.

Police said they received a report at 9:23 a.m. of Stone riding around in the 400 block of East McNeil with a .22 rifle in his lap.

Stone was taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville.

A 60-year-old man reported Sunday that someone scratched the passenger side of his 1996 Cadillac while it was in the 200 block of East Main. The damage occurred Friday or Saturday.

David K. LaBounty Jr., 30, of 708 W. Washington, was arrested after a foot pursuit at 1:15 a.m. Sunday at Parkview Court.

He was released on a notice to appear.

Police are investigating a hit-and-run accident reported at 10:30 a.m. Sunday at East Honeywell and North Seventh St.

An unidentified vehicle turned left in front of a 2002 Chevrolet driven by April L. Howie of 837 E. Elm. The vehicle then left the scene.

Howie was southbound on Seventh when the accident occurred, police said.
