Library seeks original artwork

Area artists will have a new forum for their work. The Hoopeston Public Library, in cooperation with the Hoopeston Art Association, is seeking original art to be displayed in the library.

The addition of art is part of a Live and Learn grant, administered by the Illinois State Library and Secretary of State's office. One half of one percent of the grant is to be used for original art.

People from outside the district will review entries and serve as judges. The library will select entries from the exhibit to purchase and will display them in accordance with grant regulations.

Entry forms and requirements are available at the library's main circulation desk. Forms must be returned by Oct. 12.

The exhibit will be open to the public Oct. 23-26. People in seventh grade through adults are eligible to submit work. All two- and three-dimensional media are welcome.

For more information, call (217) 283-6711 or visit the library at 110 N. Fourth St.

Multi Agency at (217) 283-5544.

 Police News

Cindy Jo Glenn, 45, of 313 E. McCracken, was arrested at 11:32 p.m. Thursday at city hall. Glenn, wanted on a Newton County, Ind., warrant for failure to appear, was taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville to await extradition to Indiana.

A 19-year-old Hoopeston man reported Friday that someone took a Play Station 2 and several games from his home in the 700 block of East McNeil.

A ladies gold diamond wedding band was found Friday in the 200 block of East Main. The owner may identify and claim it at the police station.

Delpha Umbanhowar, 90, of Hoopeston, was ticketed for improper backing after an accident at 1:05 p.m. Friday in the 300 block of East Main.

Police said Umbanhowar backed her 1995 Oldsmobile Cutlass from a parking space into a parked 1991 Buick owned by Joelle Nelson of Watseka. That car was then pushed into a parked 1992 Buick Century owned by Donald Murphy of Hoopeston.

No injuries were reported.

Bradlee L. Davenport, 22, of 628 E. Young, was arrested at 6:30 p.m. Friday one mile east of Hoopeston on Rt. 9.

He was charged with driving while license suspended and operating an uninsured motor vehicle and was released on his license and a notice to appear.

John R. Dene, 22, of 315 E. Holmes, Rossville, and a 16-year-old girl were arrested at 7:57 p.m. Friday in the parking lot of Birkey's Farm Store, one-quarter mile south of the intersection of Rtes. 1 and 9.

Police said officers stopped Dene in the parking lot and requested identification from him and the girl but that neither could produce any.

Dene was charged with contributing to the delinquency of children, gift of alcohol to a person under 21, illegal transportation of alcohol and operating an uninsured motor vehicle.

The girl was charged with illegal possession of alcohol by a minor and illegal transportation of alcohol.

The girl was released to a parent.

Dene's car was towed from the scene.

A 60-year-old woman reported Saturday that an envelope containing money was lost or stolen in the area of the 300 block of South Market.

Tiffany F. Lile, 19, of 512 E. Thompson, was arrested at 11:53 p.m. Saturday at 800 S. Dixie Hwy.

Lile, wanted on an Iroquois County warrant for failure to appear, was released on $150 cash bond.

Matthew M. Hofer, 19, of 528 W. Elm, was arrested at 3:02 a.m. Sunday at 725 E.

McNeil. He was charged with home invasion, aggravated battery and probation violation on a complaint from an 18-year-old man.

Hofer was taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville.
