Police News

An unidentified four-year-old received minor injuries when he was struck by a car Tuesday.

The child ran from behind an apartment at Parkview Court into a 1993 Jeep Grand Cherokee driven by Penny A. Guajardo of Hoopston. Guajardo told police the child was in her blind spot.

The youngster was taken to Hoopston Community Memorial Hospital by a family member to be treated for minor injuries, police said.

No tickets were issued.

Brandon Crawford, 21, of Danville, was ticketed for failure to reduce speed to avoid an accident and operating an uninsured motor vehicle after an accident at 6:24 p.m. Tuesday at Seventh St. and Wyman.

Police said Crawford, in a 1984 Chevrolet Caprice, did not yield at the intersection and hit a 2001 Cadillac Carylall driven by Carolyn Curry of Hoopston.

Andrea S. Dilts, 32, of Milford, was ticketed after an accident at 9:26 p.m. Tuesday in the 400 block of East Thompson. She was cited for failure to give information after an accident, failure to reduce speed to avoid an accident, improper lane usage and failure to wear a seat belt.

Police said Dilts, in a 1997 Dodge Dakota, was east-bound when she swerved to miss a dog. She struck a telephone pole and street sign. Police said she left the scene by was later found by officers.

She was released on her driver's license.
