Area residents gather to pay tribute to those who served

Scores of Hoopeston area residents braved cold temperatures to converge on McFerren Park Monday for the annual Veterans' Day ceremony.

Area veterans were recognized during the service at the park's Veterans Memorial. Two veterans received a gift, belated high school diplomas.

Lawrence Comstock and Dale McElhaney would each have graduated in 1943. However, Comstock joined the service in 1941 and McElhaney became ill, then joined the armed forces in 1944. Neither man received his diploma until Monday.

The veterans were able to receive the honor because of
