Briefly

Nominating papers available

Nominating papers for the April 1, 2003 election may be picked up at the Hoopeston Municipal Building.

Five aldermanic seats are up for election, including a four-year-term in Wards 1, 2 and 3 and a two-year term and a four-year term in Ward 2. The two-year term is the unexpired remainder of former Alderman Mike Eckersley's seat.

The first day to file petitions is Jan. 13, 2003. The final day to file is Jan. 21, 2003.

Winners

November winners in the Hoopeston Women Making a Difference drawing are: Jennifer Wallace and Lori Eells, $25; Ruby Bushue, $15; and Susie Eells, $10.

Civic Center open

The McFerren Park Civic Center is now open to walkers from 6 a.m. to 7 p.m. Monday-Friday.

Tiny Tots

Tiny Tots will not be held this week due to the Thanksgiving holiday.

No paper Thursday

Just the Facts will not be printed Thursday for Thanksgiving. Publication will resume Friday.

A little dusting

The area's first dusting of snow fell Sunday night and early Monday, covering vehicles like these two at Price-Less Foods.

Attorney presents camera donated by lawyers' association

Hoopeston Area High School students received new technology last week from a state lawyers' group.

Attorney Paul Manion, representing the Illinois Trial Lawyers Association, presented a digital camera to technology teacher Debbie Ledford. The donation is part of a statewide program to help aspiring high school journalists learn to use state-of-the-art cameras.

The Illinois Trial Lawyers Association is the leading bar group which primarily represents ordinary citizens involved in disputes with insurance companies and other corporate interests. Manion is a member of the organization's Board of Managers.
