Recorder candidates list qualifications at Watch meeting

The women who want to be the next Vermilion County recorder of deeds spoke to the Hoopeston Neighborhood Watch group last week.

Sheri Cramer and Barb Young are the Republican candidates who will face each other in the March 16 primary. The winner will face Democrat Donald Crist in November.

CRAMER

Incumbent Nancy Kelly is not seeking reelection for health reasons.

Young, has spent 20 years with the Danville Election Commission and, in that time, has worked with recorders of deeds and is familiar with the duties of the office. Also, she said, she was asked by Kelly to consider running for the office.

Young, who has experience in the Danville YWCA office, and as a teacher, said "no legal experience is needed for the job. It's merely a filing office," she said.

Young talked about a recent increase in fees in the recorder's office, upping the filing cost from $12 to $30 to help pay for a new $1.9 million countywide mapping system. "I'm on record as being against (fee) hikes until the economy is better," she said. "(The mapping program) is a wonderful tool. We just don't have the money."

Young is additionally seeking the office because it

Police News

A 16-year-old Hoopeston girl was arrested at 8:06 p.m. Wednesday in the 200 block of East Main. She was charged with battery on a complaint from a 21-year-old Rossville man who alleged the girl struck him in the face.

The girl was released on a notice to appear.

would represent a nearly $12,000 pay hike. The recorder's salary is approximately $50,000 with a $6,500
stipend from the state, she said.

Cramer currently works in the law office of Daniel Brown. "The job requirements of this office are commensurate with my experience," she said.

Cramer has served as legal secretary, working with real estate, probate, municipal issues and banking, handling deeds, doing title work, accounting and payroll. She has a combined 15 years experience in lending and legal matters which, she said, will serve her well as the county's new recorder.

Cramer said if elected, she would try to find ways to make the office run more efficiently but that there are no problems in the office now. In her current position, Cramer said she deals daily with title companies and attorneys who say "the job the employees are
