Three Hoopeston organizations plan summer golf outings

Those who like to golf will have ample opportunity to do so and raise money for local organizations.

Three Hoopeston groups have scheduled golf outings in June and July at Hubbard Trail Country Club

The newest one is the inaugural Cornjerker Golf Outing on June 12. The event, sponsored by the Hoopeston Area High School Sports Boosters, will have tee times of 8 a.m. and 1 p.m. It will be a four-player scramble - best ball, with a cost of $200 per team or $50 per person. Rain date is June 13.

For those unable to attend, cart and hole sponsorships are available at $25 and $50 respectively.

Money raised from the event will be used to support sports programs in the school district. The group has purchased many pieces of equipment for various sports teams and hopes to raise $4,000 to buy a shoot-away for the basketball teams.

For more information, call athletic director Kevin Root at (217) 283-6660 or email rootkm@hoopeston.k12.il.us

On June 18, duffers will raise money during the 13th annual Hoopeston Chamber of Commerce golf outing. Flight times will be at 8 a.m. and 1 p.m. for the four-player scramble. The contest will have two divisions, gross and net, with cash prizes for low teams in each category.

Cost is $50 for individual golfers ($40 for HTCC or Chamber members); hole sponsor $250; cash contributor, $100; and cart sponsor, $25.

Hubbard Trail will serve dinner after the event. Reservations may be made by calling Hubbard Trail Country Club, 748-6521. Evening entertainment will be provided by The Party Doctor DJ service.
