Angels continued from other side

with StarShine Promotion and began their nation-wide radio campaign with their single "Father Figure." The single was spun on over seventy radio stations around the U.S. "Father Figure" was the most requested song on WXTQ Athens, Ohio, KLLC San Francisco, and KVHT Yankton, South Dakota. It also frequented the Top 5 at 9 on WQQB Champaign, Illinois. WQQB program director John McKeighan had this to say about Luke and John's two on-air visits to the station, "Hearing this song in my office, compared to on the radio was a whole different experience. The phones are heavy for these boys. We made them stay to do more songs and the phones would not stop ringing while they were in the studio. This station is over the moon for Luke Boyce...whose songs really have something to say, and John Thamm...

Erik and Chad, have developed into a diverse, melodic and talented pop/rock act that has gained respect around the country. With Luke bringing new tunes to the band seemingly every week, and the talented musicians solidifying their high-energy live performance, Regarding Angels continue to turn more and more heads. Most recently, Regarding Angels returned to Eclipse Studios to record a collection of new songs and previously unrecorded material. The self-titled album, Regarding Angels, which is the first full length LP for the band, will be available for the first time on the iTunes Music Store.
