After four decades, Hoopeston Area music teacher retiring

After 40 years of trying to keep students in tune, Judith Voorhees is going solo.

Voorhees' resignation due to retiring was accepted at Thursday night's Hoopeston Area School Board meeting.

For four decades, Voorhees has taught music to grade school students and has been a staple in the district. Her replacement has not yet been named.

In other personnel matters, the board accepted resignations from LeAnne Stebbins, grade school personal aide; Jane Bray, high school cross country coach; and Rich Stipp, eighth grade girls' basketball coach.

The board also announced new appointments, including Dan Walder as John Greer principal.

Walder, who came to the district in 1995 as a social studies teacher, replaces Larry Hill.

Hill came to Hoopeston Area in 1990 from Watseka. He served as a teacher before becoming principal at

 Police News

Carolyn M. Fleming, 57, of Hoopeston was ticketed for failure to yield at a marked intersection after an accident at 9:59 a.m. Thursday.

Volunteers sought for local Memorial Day preparations

Volunteers are needed at 9 a.m. Tuesday to help place flags on the graves of members of the military who have passed in preparation for Memorial Day services.

Those who would like to help may meet at Floral Hill Cemetery. For more information, call Bob Duffin, 283-9241.

Hoopeston American Legion and VFW, and their auxiliary organizations, will hold traditional Memorial Day services at Floral Hill Cemetery at 10:30 a.m. Monday, May 30.

The service will feature the Hoopeston Area High School band and comments from each organization and other dignitaries. Nathan Wells, who recently returned from Iraq, will be the featured speaker.

In case of inclement weather, the service will be held at the McFerren Park Civic Center. After the service a free community luncheon will be held at the VFW at the corner of Fourth Ave. and West Orange.

Police said Fleming, in a 1993 Oldsmobile, was southbound on South Third St., slowed for the yield sign and entered the intersection at East Penn where she collided with a 1998 Toyota driven by Shane G. Decker of Hoopeston.

No injuries were reported.

Debra L. Lindsey, 37, of 643 E. Thompson was arrested at 9:10 p.m. Thursday in the American Legion parking lot, 502 E. Penn. She was charged with battery on a complaint from a 13-year-old girl who alleged Lindsey struck her.

Lindsey was released on $100 cash bond.

Travis C. Lackey, 28, of 910 W. Honeywell was arrested at 11:01 p.m. Thursday in the 900 block of East Honeywell.

Lackey, wanted on a Vermilion County small claims warrant for failure to appear, was released on $300 cash bond.
