Hoopeston man joins Crist & Associates Auction & Realty

First-time homebuyers now have a friend in the business.

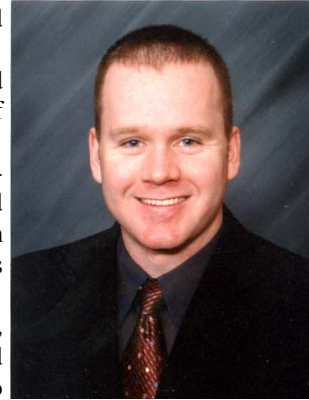

Brandon Reffett of Hoopeston has joined Crist & Associates Auction & Realty of Danville.

Reffett will handle all types of real estate, including residential, agricultural and commercial but hopes to specialize in helping first-time buyers deal with lenders in arranging financing.

As a Realtor[®] and associate appraiser, Reffett said he can use his knowledge and skills to get the most for those wanting to sell their homes by suggested minor repairs or small changes to enhance a property's value and salability.

Although new to the field, real estate investment is something Reffett said he has always had a large interest in. "I though there's no better way to learn for personal investment than to sell it," he said.

After receiving training, Reffett said he opted to join Crist & Associates because of Don Crist's interest in him. "He was the one guy willing to step out and help me on the appraisal side," Reffett said, adding it was

REFFETT

Crist who helped him decide to enter the real estate end of it. While Reffett is a new-comer, he said Crist is a "seasoned pro" in the business.

Reffett is a member of the Danville, Illinois and national Associations of Realtors[®] and markets properties through the Multiple Listing Service (MLS).

He is also a member of the First Church of God. In his spare time, he enjoys fishing and teaching kids karate at The Karate Club.

Reffett and his wife, Stephanie, who is a registered nurse, have one son, four-year-old Owen

Reffett may be reached at home, (217) 283-4921 or by cell phone, (217)304-9140.

Farmers Market to sprout

Area gardeners will have a new place to sell produce beginning July 7.

A local Farmers' Market will begin July 7 and last through the end of the growing season, said organizer Robin Lawson.

The market will be held in the lot next to Hollywood Video. Spaces will be available on Tuesdays and Fridays of each week. Hours will be from 8 a.m. until vegetables are gone. Cost is $4 per time, which will cover advertising the market.

Along with gardeners, Lawson hopes churches will take advantage of the market as a means of fundraising, to sell baked goods, quilts, produce or other goods. Churches will not be charged a fee, she said.

The Farmers' Market will coincide with Lingley Bros.

Local drivers race to winning spots at county, Kamp tracks

Local racers did well in weekend contests at Vermilion County Speedway and Kamp Motor Speedway.

At Friday's UMP modified at Danville, Jammie Wilson took second place in heat results in in the feature, Arby Burton took second, Wilson third, Jarred Warner eighth and Jim Bailey eleventh.

Saturday at Kamp, Wilson was heat winner with Warner third. Consi winner was Jim Bailey with Nelson Stewart fourth.

In feature results, Dan Hamstra, Burton, Wilson, and Derek Losh led with Warner 14th, Bailey sixteenth and Stewart nineteenth.

Police News

No tickets or injuries were reported in an accident at 10:37 a.m. Tuesday in the 800 block of East Maple.

Police said Janice E. Williams of Dumfries, Va., in a 2006 Chevrolet, backed from a driveway into a parked 2004 Chevrolet owned by Annette Allison of Wellington.

Fishing equipment was found Tuesday along Rt. 1 south of Hoopeston. The owner may identify and claim it at the police station.

Two girls were charged in connection with a June 26 burglary in the 700 block of West Penn.

Court Dispositions

June 1

Robert Milburn Jr., pleaded guilty to disorderly conduct; fined $230.

Dawn Carswell, failed to appear at status hearing; judgment to be sought in circuit court.

Kevin Tyler Jr., failed to appear at status hearing; judgment to be sought in circuit court.

Market continued from other side sweet corn season, which will also be sold at the lot.

"I think it's going to be a success," Lawson said, adding a large thank you to the City of Hoopeston for mowing the lot and to lot owner Paul Drullinger for donating the space.

Gardeners interested in selling goods at the Farmers' Market may call Lawson at (217) 283-7214.

Stewart drove the Wilson Motor Sports primary car on Saturday and, not having driven a modified before, finished fourth in the consi and 19th in the feature. Nelson stayed to sign autographs for fans after the race and asked if he could come back this fall.

There will be no racing Friday at Vermilion County. The Wilson Motor Sports team will travel to Kankakee on Friday night before returning to Kamp on Saturday. Sunday will find them at Vermilion County for the UMP Summer National late model race paying $6,000 to win.

Residents are invited to come and support local racers.

The girls, a 10-year-old from Ludlow and a 12-year-old Hoopeston girl were charged with the residential burglary and released to a parent or guardian. Juvenile petitions were filed on both children.

Rosalind S. Faila, 47, of 510 S. Sixth Ave., was arrested at 2 p.m. Tuesday at Pamida, 1020 W. Chestnut.

Police said Faila was taken into custody after an investigation that began when she allegedly presented a forged prescription to be filled.

Faila was charged with forgery, possession of a controlled substance and possession of a controlled substance with intent to deliver.

She was taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville to await a hearing.
