Challenger questions Tuesday's Ward 2 alderman results

The challenger in the Ward 2 race for alderman is questioning Tuesday's election results.

According to unofficial vote counts, Nathan Phillips lost to incumbent Jerry Yonkers, 62-44.

However, Phillips said Wednesday that some voters in the ward did not receive the correct ballots and there was a possible mistake counting some votes.

What will be done is undecided, he added.

In other city races, incumbents ran unopposed. Unofficial vote totals were:

Ward 1, Ed Lotz	74
Write-in	5
Ward 3: Nancy Stipp	32
Write-in	0
Ward 4: Brandon Hamilton	143
Write-in	2

In the Hoopeston Area School Board election, incumbent Mark Wagoner will keep his seat on the board. He will be joined by newcomer Mark Schaumburg.

Wagoner garnered the most votes of the five candidates running for two seats in the former Hoopeston school district. Unofficial vote totals were:

Mark Wagoner	526
Mark Schaumburg	292
Joel Bird	199
Stephen P. Highfill	186
Kathy Franklin	193

Correction

The current fee for Saturday grave opening rate was incorrect in Wednesday's issue. The correct amount is $325.

Also, the story stated the council meeting was Tuesday. It was actually held Monday night.

Just the Facts regrets the errors.

Chris Elliott ran unopposed in the "out" portion of the district.

Totals include votes in Vermilion, Iroquois and Ford counties.

In Rossville, where there were no races in either the village or school board elections, incumbent Bunny Tweedy and Mary Beth Rhodes were elected to the village board with 73 votes for Tweedy and 41 for Rhodes. Write-in votes in Rhodes' race totaled 81.

No candidates ran for two seats on the board.

For Rossville-Alvin School Board, Donna White was the top vote-getter with 143. Darren Duncan received 102 and Kyle Zarate received 93. All will be seated on the board.

Joseph Krilcich, who filed to run and then withdrew, received 68 votes.

Four candidates running were elected to the Hoopeston Public Library board. Sherry Miller, Dale Fry and Cecelia Dixon were running for four-year terms and Wayne King for the unexpired term of Mark Conolly.

Christopher Webb takes third at council pinewood derby

Christopher Webb from Cub Scout Pack 118 in Hoopeston took third place at the Prairielands Council Pinewood Derby race April 14 at O'Brien's Auto Center, Champaign. More than 120 cars competed at the Council Derby race separated into four heats. All four heats had more than 30 cars competing for the top two finalists. Webb won his heat and was one of the top two finalists. He, along with the top two from all heats competed in the final 8 to run in the Championship heat. Webb was able to outrun every car except two, which were slightly faster, that gave him third place.

Webb has taken first place for three years in a row at the local Pack Derby in Hoopeston and also took second place last year at the Council Derby race. He was really looking forward to trying to get that first at the council as he had made several modifications to this car and it was much faster than last year's. This car didn't lose a race at the derby in Hoopeston but wasn't able to overcome the two from Champaign. Webb has one more year to race in the Cub Scouts.

Cub Scout Pack 118 is chartered by the Methodist Church in Hoopeston where all pack and den meetings are held. Webb enjoys the Cub Scouts and has been involved in many projects, such as building a bird feeder, a toolbox, and taking field trips to places around Hoopeston to earn badges. Of course his favorite activity is the pinewood derby. Terri Hurt is Webb's Den Leader and Shawn McMillan is the Cubmaster for Pack 118.

He is the son of Mike & Delaine Webb of rural Hoopeston.
