Patrick Quinn to speak at Hoopeston monument dedication

Illinois Lieutenant Governor Patrick Quinn is scheduled to be the keynote speaker at Sunday's "Lest They Be Forgotten" monument dedication.

The monument is in memory of PFC Jeffrey R. Wallace who was killed May 24, 2006 in Iraq.

Quinn, a supporter of military personnel and the USO, came to Hoopeston for Mr. Wallace's visitation and has remained in contact with the family.

He is scheduled to speak at the dedication, which begins at 1 p.m. Sunday at the south end of McFerren Park. Residents are invited to attend.

QUINN

The "Lest They Be Forgotten" monument depicts a soldier's helmet atop a weapon positioned between combat boots. It was created by Gregg Garvey who lost his son in the Iraq war. The monument has become available to families and communities that want to commemorate soldiers' sacrifices.

During the July 3, 2006 Salute to Hometown Heroes, Dave McFadden announced that Hoopeston would raise funds for the monument. Donations were collected and the monument was expected to arrive in Hoopeston last week.

More information on the monument may be found at www.lesttheybeforgotten.org.

Hoopeston couple charged with illegally restraining woman

A Hoopeston couple is scheduled to be arraigned today on charges that they illegally restrained a woman in their home.

Barbara A. Schwartz, 64, and Ronald H. Schwartz, 66, of 724 S. Fourth St., have been charged with unlawful restraint, a Class 4 felony.

According to police Chief Mark Drollinger, on March 30, officers responded to the Schwartz home to investigate a call for help. A neighbor had reported a woman's voice calling for help inside the home.

Inside the home, officers allegedly found a 42-year-old handicapped woman bound to a bed with a chain and padlock at her ankle. She was alone at the time.

The woman was taken to Hoopeston Community Memorial Hospital for observation and evaluation.

The case was referred to the Vermilion County State's Attorney's office for review of preliminary charges of criminal neglect of a disabled person and unlawful restraint and to the Illinois Inspector General and Attorney General's offices, Drollinger said.

The woman, of whom the Schwartzes were guardians for approximately 10 years, was the subject of an emergency guardianship hearing in April. The state currently has temporary guardianship of the woman.

Former Hoopeston man wins tickets to Super Bowl XLII

Former Hoopeston resident Christopher Luke recently won two tickets to Super Bowl XLII at University of Phoenix Stadium in Glendale, Ariz., while attending the Collegiate Sports Video Association in San Diego, Calif., on May 15-19.

Luke was attending the conference as he begins his fourth year at Texas A&M University, in College Station, Tex., as the assistant video coordinator.

He is a 1994 graduate of Hoopeston Area High school, and 1998 graduate of Eastern Illinois University.

The son of Nancy and Cliff Luke, he is married to the former Sabra Hubbert of Sikeston, Mo. They have a son, Travis, who will turn 2 on December 15.

The tickets were part of a gift to the organization for football videotapes sent in by all Division 1-A football teams for scouting purposes to the NFL combine and draft.

This is the third year the NFL has given tickets away at the CSVA convention as a thank you for the organization's hard work.

Correction

It was incorrectly reported in Wednesday's edition that money was paid by the Village of Rossville to Sodemann & Associates for a grant for a new water treatment plant. The $12,000 paid for towards the fee for designing the plant.
