The family of John Travis Morgenroth wishes to extend their thanks and gratitude to all those who have sent flowers, plants, cards and notes; to those who brought food and supplies; and to all those who have offered love, support and prayers during this time of loss. Special thanks to everyone at Hoopeston Hospital for their unwavering support, to Pastor Kiley Garrison and Second Church of Christ/Danville for a lovely service and especially to all of John's friends.

Artistic Repertory Theatre to perform Pippin July 13-15

A mix of young people and adults from Hoopeston, Rossville, Rankin, Cissna Park and Champaign will bring to life a story of a young prince's quest to find happiness when the Artistic Repertory Theatre presents Pippin on July 13-15.

Pippin is a young prince who is tempted by power, fame and wealth and the temptations of the world that are presented to all young people. Pippin learns that true happiness and fulfillment comes from the simple joys of family life and true love.

Although the story takes place long ago, the message is true for people in all times and places. Pippin finds his way to a full, happy and successful life in the simple truths of life.

The cast of "Pippin"

Performances will be at 7 p.m. Friday and Saturday and 2 p.m. Sunday at the McFerren Park Civic Center.

Briefly

Special time for meeting

Tuesday's Hoopeston City Council meeting will begin at 6 p.m. rather than the usual 7 p.m. so that those attending will be finished in time for the fireworks display at dusk.

Photos of military members wanted

Phyllis Brewster, owner of Countryside Crafts and Flea Market, 217 E. Main, Hoopeston, is looking for photos of military members who have died in service or who are currently on active duty. Photos will be used for a window display and will be returned after Labor Day weekend.

Pictures may be dropped off at Countryside or call Brewster at 283-5133. Please put your name on the back of photos submitted.
