Hoopeston residents to be focus of WILL series on WWII

Submitted by

KIMBERLIE KRANICH, WILL

WILL is doing a series of radio and TV reports and oral history interviews and events in central Illinois to create awareness and discussion about the impact of WWII on local communities, and to preserve this history before it dies along with the WWII generation. We are doing this through the power of storytelling and through local people sharing their oral histories from this time period.

AM-580 news director Tom Rogers has interviewed several people from Hoopeston, including Carolyn

Hicks, about the former German POW camp. Those who missed the radio story can read about it and listen to it by accessing <http://will.atlas.uiuc.edu/index.php/WWII/stories/>. Click on the page and scroll down to the story "Hoopeston POW" camps. Click on the "RealAudio archive" link to listen to it from a computer or click on the "downloadable MP3" link to hear it in an MP3 player.

Rogers will moderate a discussion about WWII and Hoopeston at 6:30 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 25 at the Hoopeston Public Library. The discussion will feature men

Area residents needed to perform customer service evaluation at Hoopeston grocery store

Hoopeston residents are needed to complete a 20 minute customer service evaluation at a grocery store in Hoopeston. The pay is $14, including grocery reimbursement. The goal of this quick evaluation is to make the store a better place to shop for everyone. Those interested should email abridwell@trendsource.com or call (619) 718-7467, extension 124 and ask for Ali.

The evaluation is all observational— evaluators do not need to talk to anyone and at no time will their identities be revealed.

- Evaluate the cleanliness of the interior and lobby area for the following criteria: sanitation/cleanliness, branding/store appearance, shopping experience, checkout experience.
- Purchase at least 3 items (One large item, and two other items of your choice).
- Evaluate your cashier/bagger.
- Approximately 35 questions - the majority of which are yes/no.
- When: Either Monday-Thursday 3-7pm or Friday - Sunday 11am–5pm.
