Letters to the Editor

In support of Dr. Kuha

It seems to me since Dr. Timmons was put in charge of the Hoopeston ER and the other decision making, the quality of health care has gone south.

Last year we lost two doctors, Oh and Crawford. Now Dr Kuha's job is about to be terminated. I very strongly protest his dismissal.

We need more real doctors in Hoopeston- I mean

M.D.s - not less.

I don't know what beef Timmons and the hospital board has with Dr. Kuha, but it would behoove them to explain their actions before they discharge a fine doctor who is extremely competent and caring.

The people deserve an explanation from the hospital board and Timmons-NOW!

Santa arrives Saturday, will visit with children until noon

Santa will arrive in Hoopeston at about 10 a.m. Saturday. He will arrive on a shiny, red, sleigh-like vehicle and will be escorted by Hoopeston Police. He will travel down Main Street to Rotary Park, where he will be until noon. Cookies and cocoa will be served and youngsters may have pictures taken with him for $3.

The first 200 kids will receive a pass to the Lorraine Theatre for a 1 p.m. special showing of a movie. Accompanying adults will be pay the usual admission.

In conjunction with Santa's visit, a scavenger hunt will be held in downtown businesses for those wishing to participate.
