Letters to the Editor

HAYB says thank you

Hoopeston Area Youth Baseball Board would like to thank the City of Hoopeston for their support this year. As always, they have been great in helping with the mowing of our fields and many other things that come up during the season.

The season is ending and we have many thanks to pass on. HAYB held two tournaments this year at the fields, it takes a lot of help to get the fields ready, run the concession stand, and manage all of the teams that come to town. We would especially like to thank the following for the Frank Longfellow Tournament:

Lunch Menus

Alkire, Randy Stebbins, and Bob Brown.

For our first ever Dave Warf Memorial Tournament we would like to thank the members of the Dave Warf family for their help umpiring and running the concession stand.

Thank you for a great 2008 youth baseball season.

The HAYB Board

Rossville fireworks a success

I would like to thank all of the people involved in the fireworks display in Rossville. I have heard lots of positive comments and expressions of appreciation for the fireworks this year. It was a great display! Looking forward to another great display next year.

Also a big thanks goes to the fire department and ambulance crew for their time and efforts to provide fun for families at the park with the water slide o the 4th of July. Your time and energy was truly appreciated.

Sincerely,
Chris Pearson
Rossville
