Sorority, restaurant, pageant plan fundraisers for Willamina

Upcoming events are being scheduled in support of Willamina Clayton, 10-month old daughter of Katie and Will Clayton, who is undergoing chemotherapy.

First, anyone who has purchased a Willamina t-shirt is asked to wear them on Fridays. Grandma Janet Crouch is trying to get as many pictures as possible of people wearing the shirts.

People are also encouraged to wear the shirts during the National Sweetcorn Festival parade, Beta Sigma Phi will have a float in the parade advertising the Day of Play for Willamina, to be held Oct. 5 at McFerren Park. The Clayton family is expected to be with the sorority in the parade and sorority members would like them to see a show of support.

Beta Sigma Phi members will be selling shirts prior to the parade.

Also, Tin Pan Restaurant in Paxton is holding a fundraiser for the family next week. From Aug. 12-16, anyone wearing a Willamina shirt will have 15 percent of their check donated to the family. Patrons who don't have a shirt but say the password (kiddo) will have 10 percent of their check donated.

Also, organizer of the Little Miss Sweetcorn pageant are dedicating this year's event to Willamina. T-shirts will be sold at the door of the event on Aug. 24 and contestants will wear them for the opening number of the pageant.
