Police News

A 45-year-old Hoopeston woman reported at 3 p.m. Tuesday that withdrawals had been made from her account without her permission.

Jeremy R. Schwartz, 18, of Hoopeston was arrested after an incident at 1:30 a.m. Wednesday at Ted's Home Beverage, 101 W. Main. He was charged with burglary after he allegedly broke a window at the business and took a case of beer.

Schwartz was taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville.

Edward A. Schwing, 32, of Hoopeston was arrested at 8:24 a.m. Wednesday in the 100 block of East Lincoln. He was charged with possession of drug paraphernalia and possession of cannabis after assisting an Illinois State Parole Agent.

Schwing was released on notices to appear.

Jason R. Reyes, 20, of Hoopeston was arrested after an incident at 12:59 a.m. Thursday in the 300 block of East Lincoln. He was charged with domestic battery on a complaint from a 38-year-old Hoopeston man and violation of probation.

He was taken to the Public Safety Building, Danville.

L.S. Diesel Repair would like to thank all of the sponsors who helped support the 2008 Sweetcorn Festival Truck and Tractor Pull and to those who donated the equipment used at the track. Thanks go also to everyone who worked at the pull: the gates and registration, track workers, flagmen and tractor operators. All of you did a wonderful job and your help was greatly appreciated. We couldn't do it without you. Thank you!
