Police News

Kathleen M. Hunter, 37, of Hoopeston, was arrested after an incident at 5:10 p.m. Thursday in the 600 block of South Third St.

She was charged with residential burglary on a complaint from a 21-year-old Hoopeston woman who alleged someone broke into her home.

At 8:30 p.m., Hunter was arrested on a Lake County warrant for failure to appear/theft, with bond set at $20,000 and additional charges of possession of stolen property and possession of a controlled substance.

Hunter was taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville.

Darryl K. Hunter, 41, of Hoopeston, was arrested at 8:30 p.m. Thursday in the 600 block of South Third St. Wanted on an Iroquois County traffic warrant for failure to appear/rule to show cause, with bond set at $250, he was additionally charged with obstructing justice, possession of a controlled substance and no FOID card.

He was taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville.

Kenneth W. Murray II, 27, of Hoopeston, was arrested at 4:05 p.m. Friday in the 600 block of South Third St. Wanted on a Lake County warrant for failure to appear/possession of cannabis, he was taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville in lieu of $20,000 bond.

William Figueroa, 21, of Chicago, was arrested at 5:05 p.m. Friday in the 600 block of South Third St. He was charged with obstructing a police officer after police allege Figueroa lied when asked if a wanted man was in the home. The other man was found in the basement.

He was taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville.

Jesus I. Trevino, 40, of Hoopeston, was ticketed for leaving the scene of an accident after an incident at 5:17 p.m. Friday in the Pizza Hut parking lot.

Police said Trevino, in a 2000 Chevy Astro van, backed from a parking space into a parked 2002 Chrysler PT Cruiser owned by Kevin Brown of Hoopeston, then left the scene. Witnesses called police and described the vehicle, leading to Trevino's arrest.

No injuries were reported.

A 65-year-old Hoopeston man reported at 6:10 p.m. Friday that someone scratched the fenders of his vehicle while it was in the 600 block of South Seventh St.

Matthew L. Goble, 36, of Wellington, was arrested at 12:49 a.m. Saturday in the 900 block of South Dixie Hwy. He was charged with speeding and driving under the influence of a substance.

Goble was released on bond and his driver's license.

A 27-year-old Hoopeston man reported at 8:09 a.m. Saturday that someone took his truck from the 400 block of West Elm. It was later discovered across the street, with the passenger side damaged as if it had been in an accident.

A 55-year-old Hoopeston man reported at 2:41 p.m. Saturday that all windows in the front of a building in the 100 block of West Main had been broken.

John P. Smith, 43, of Hoopeston, was arrested at 4:14 p.m. Saturday at Parkview Court. Wanted on an Effingham County warrant for failure to appear/driving under the influence of alcohol, Smith was taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville in lieu of $750 bond, to await extradition to Effingham County.

Jerry L. Lindsey, 38, of Hoopeston, was arrested at 10:30 p.m. Saturday in the 200 block of East Main. Wanted on a Bond County warrant for default on payment of fine for failure to register as a sex offender, he was taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville, in lieu of $500 bond, to await extradition.

A 58-year-old Hoopeston man reported at 1:28 a.m. Sunday that someone damaged his property in the 700 block of East Thompson.

Amanda S. Palomo, 22, of Hoopeston, was treated and released from Hoopeston Community Memorial Hospital for injuries from an accident at 1:17 a.m. Sunday.

Police said Palomo, in a 2005 Pontiac, was eastbound on Main when she turned north into a parking lot between Unger's Jewelry and State Farm Insurance. She turned too far left and struck the east Wall of the jewelry store, then left the scene, police said.

She was later located, taken to the hospital, then charged with failure to reduce speed to avoid an accident and driving under the influence.

Palomo was released on her license and $100 cash bond.
