Author of 'Earl the Squirrel' book series to read at library

George Scheber, author of the popular children's book series, "Earl the Squirrel," will visit the Hoopeston Public Library for a story session and book signing.

Scheber will visit during Tiny Tots at 10:30 a.m. Friday, Feb. 27. He will read from his books during Tiny Tots story hour for pre-school children and their parents/caregivers. He will also have copies of his books available for sale for $10 each.

From Gilman, Scheber has written four children's books featuring Ear, "a little squirrel with a big tooth and an even bigger heart." His newest series features a boy named Charlie who wants to become a crime fighter so he creates a superhero alter-ego named "Chicken Big."

Both book series feature colorful illustrations by California artist Bridgett Spicer, and will appeal to children from preschool through age seven.

Hoopeston Public Library is located at 110 N. Fourth St., Hoopeston.

For more information, call children's librarian Carol Arnold at (217) 283-6711.

Men's basketball

First Baptist Church has open men's basketball from 6:30-8:30 p.m. Thursdays. All area men are invited.

Tutor training

The Reader's Route needs volunteer tutors, to help adults learn to read better. The Reader's Route, a literacy program offered by the Adult Education division of Danville Area Community College, pairs volunteer literacy tutors with adults age 16 years or older who read below the 9th grade level. The Secretary of State, whose office funds the project, requires volunteers to complete 12 hours of training before becoming tutors. The Reader's Route is sponsoring Volunteer Tutor Training sessions.

Training will be offered on Tuesdays, March 3, 10, 17, 24 and 31, 2009 from 9:30 a.m.-12:30 p.m. in the 2nd Floor Conference Room at the Danville Public Library, 319 N. Vermilion St., Danville. Refreshments will be available.

To register call Louise Free, Recruiter Trainer at 217-443-8868 or e-mail lfree@dacc.edu.

Smoking cessation classes

The Vermilion County Health Department will offer a free, four-week smoking cessation class beginning this month. Classes will meet once a week in the conference room of the Vermilion County Health Department, 200 South College Street in Danville on Thursdays, Feb. 19, 26, March 5 and 12, from 5:30-7 p.m.

Those attending classes can receive four weeks of free nicotine replacement patches. "

Anyone interested in attending the classes should call the health department at 431-2662, ext 241 or 302 to sign up; or those wanting information or to sign up can email lbolton@vchd.org, or mcrome@vchd.org .
