Hoopeston Junior Women's Club to hold kids' carnival

Hey, kids! The carnival is coming to town!

Hoopeston Junior Women's Club will again host the HJWC Carnival from noon-2 p.m. Sunday, April 5 at the McFerren Park Civic Center in Hoopeston.

Bracelets will be available at the door -- $10 for full access to 12 games, including a bounce house; or $13 bracelets for full access to 12 games, plus tickets for hair painting, sand art, pie in the face and Easter egg decorating. Plus, photos will be available with the Easter bunny for only $2. Prizes will be awarded at all games!

Bring up to four canned goods for the Grant Township Food Cupboard and receive up to four tickets for the extra fun activities (included with the $13 bracelet).

In addition to the fun and games, the Hoopeston Junior Women's Club will offer baked goods, a full concessions stand and raffles for many fun themed baskets. There's something for everyone!

Hoopeston Junior Women's Club is devoted to our community, conducting children's games at local community events, food pantry donations, Angel Tree donations, blood drives, and perhaps most significantly, a $500 scholarship for one Hoopeston Area High School senior each year. Funds raised during this event will be put directly back into our community.

Holka Polka

Rossville-Alvin Grade School students will present "Holka Polka" at 6:30 p.m. Friday, April 3 in the Rossville-Alvin High School gym. Tickets are $2 each at the door. "Holka Polka" is the story of witches who try to do a good deed to keep fairies from taking away their magic. The cast includes students from fourth through eighth grade. Everyone is invited to the performance.
