Hoopeston Area board accepts resignations, hires employees

Hoopeston Area school board members approved various personnel issues at Thursday's board meeting.

District librarian Cindy Masengale will resign at the end of this year, while Maggie Cope, fifth grade teacher, submitted an intent-to-retire letter for the end of the 2010-11 year.

The board also accepted resignations of Linda Duffin, seventh grade girls volleyball coach, and Lisa Duffin, assistant coach; Clinton Mathewson, seventh grade girls basketball coach; and Don Sollars, eighth grade girls volleyball.

The board also approved hiring Gretta Looft, high school food and consumer sciences teacher; David Page, John Greer P.E./sixth grade boys basketball coach; Jennifer Anderson, John Greer special ed aide; Rodney Comstock, mechanic/bus driver; Andrea Glotzbach, John Greer Title 1 aide; and Mathewson, high school assistant girls basketball coach.

Salute

Members of the Hoopeston VFW and American Legion give a 21 gun salute at Monday's Memorial Day ceremony at Floral Hill Cemetery as the joint organizations color guard stands at attention. The event also featured music by Hoopeston Area High School band and speeches from local dignitaries, including the Rev. Lewis Mershon, keynote speaker.

Police News

No tickets or injuries were reported in an accident at 11:20 a.m. Thursday in the Pamida parking lot, 1020 W. Chestnut.

Police said Waunita Allen, of Hoopeston, in a 2000 Mercury, hit a parked 1989 Chevrolet van owned by Warren Hart, also of Hoopeston.

Juan C. Garcia-Jeminz, 24, of Rantoul, was arrested after a traffic stop at 3:30 p.m. Thursday in the 600 block of East Rt. 9. He was cited for speeding and no valid driver's license and was released with a court date in Vermilion County Circuit Court.

Jesse G. Valadez, 20, of Hoopeston, turned himself in to police at 6:27 p.m. Thursday. Wanted on a Vermilion County traffic warrant for failure to appear/driving while license suspended, speeding and illegal transportation of alcohol. He was released on $300 cash bond with a new court date in Vermilion County Circuit Court.

No tickets or injuries were reported in an accident at 8:08 p.m. Thursday. Police said Tyson Hollen, of Hoopeston, pulled into a parking space at 209 E. Main, ran over the curb and hit the Edward Jones building at that address.

A baseball equipment bag and equipment was found at 12:40 p.m. Friday near the Little League Fields. The owner may identify and claim it at the police station.

No tickets or injuries were reported in an accident at 9:17 a.m. Friday in the 600 block of East Orange. Police said James R. Zollar, of Rossville, backed a 1994 Chevrolet utility vehicle into a 1999 Pontiac driven by Courtney J. Young of Hoopeston.

Seth Gredy, 24, of Hoopeston, was arrested after an incident at 10:18 p.m. Friday at Deano's on Main, 306 E. Main. He was arrested on preliminary charges of possession of cannabis with intent to deliver, possession of a controlled substance with intent to deliver and possession of drug paraphernalia.

Gredy was taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville to await a hearing.
