A 41-year-old Hoopeston man reported at 6:14 a.m. Tuesday that someone took a stereo from his vehicle in the 300 block of West Washington.

A 24-year-old Hoopeston woman reported at 4:22 p.m. Tuesday that someone damaged her vehicle while it was in the 400 block of West Washington.

No tickets or injuries were reported in an accident at 11:32 p.m. Tuesday at Jerry's IGA, 1030 W. Chestnut. Police said Hannah Talbott, of Potomac, backed a 1998 Oldsmobile into a 1997 Chevrolet pickup driven by Jerry L. Grove, of Hoopeston.

Danny K. Propes, 54, of Hoopeston, was arrested at 7:20 p.m. Wednesday in the 100 block of West Main, after his vehicle was stopped for disobeying a stop sign. He was charged with driving under the influence and driving while license revoked.

He was taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville.

James C. Roof, 29, of Hoopeston, was arrested at 10:47 p.m. Wednesday at his home in the 500 block of West Washington. Wanted on a Vermilion County traffic warrant, he was released on $157 bond with a new court date in Vermilion County Circuit Court.

Domingo Reyes, 33, of Hoopeston, was arrested after an incident at 1:12 a.m. Thursday at Parkview Court.

He was arrested on preliminary charges of home invasion, domestic battery, criminal damage to state-supported property, criminal trespassing to state-supported property on a complaint from a 26-year-old Hoopeston woman, after neighbors reported hearing shouting and the sound of breaking glass.

Reyes was taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville to await a hearing before a judge.

Bicycles were found at 4:14 a.m. Thursday in the 200 block of East Maple, in front of the Grant Township building. Owners may identify and claim them at the police station.

Jack D. Michaels, 41, of Hoopeston, was arrested after police investigated a hit-and-run accident at 4:50 p.m. Thursday in the 800 block of South Third St.

Michaels was charged with improper backing and failure to notify police of an accident after he allegedly backed his 1975 Chevrolet van into a 2000 Chevrolet van owned by Catherine Kasallis of Hoopeston.

A 19-year-old Hoopeston man reported at 2:37 p.m. Thursday that someone took his 27 inch Mongoose bicycle from the McFerren Park pool.

Robert C. Bell, 44, of Ambia, Ind., was issued a notice to appear in Hoopeston City Court on a charge of disorderly conduct on a complaint from a 30-year-old Hoopeston woman. The incident occurred at 7:46 p.m. Thursday in the 300 block of West Lincoln, where Bell allegedly made a threatening phone call to the woman.

A representative of Honeywell School reported Friday that one of the building's windows had a large crack and a second was scratched. The damage occurred between 5 p.m. Thursday and 1 a.m. Friday.

A Hoopeston man reported at 2:09 p.m. Friday that someone scratched his vehicle while it was in the 700 block of East Thompson.

A 40-year-old Hoopeston reported at 3:07 p.m. Friday that someone slashed the tires of her vehicle while it was in the 700 block of East Wyman.

Vicki L. Ford, 51, of Hoopeston, was arrested at 3:42 p.m. Friday in the 300 block of East Main, after police received a complaint of a woman urinating in public. She was charged with public indecency and was released on $100 cash bond.

Two Hoopeston men were charged in connection with a burglary of a local man's vehicle.

A 21-year-old Hoopeston man alleges that Julian Salinas, 26, removed stereo equipment from his vehicle last week while the man was out of town, then sold the equipment Joel Solis, 23.

The men were charged with burglary to vehicle and possession of stolen property and were taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville.

Douglas C. Powell, 26, of Hoopeston, was charged with unauthorized production of cannabis sativa plant at 9:33 p.m. Friday in the 300 block of North Eighth Ave.

Police said Powell left a book bag containing about 18 live marijuana plants with a Hoopeston woman who looked inside the bag, then called police.

Powell was arrested when he returned to claim the bag and was taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville.

Marcos L. Ramirez, 18, of Hoopeston, was arrested at 12:01 a.m. Saturday in the 700 block of the alley between Main and Penn. He was charged with resisting a peace officer and illegal consumption of alcohol by a minor.

A 23-year-old woman reported Saturday that someone took a CD case with several CDs and an i-

2009 at home. There will be no service. Visitation will be 11 a.m.-1 p.m. Monday at Anderson Funeral Home, Hoopeston, followed by burial in Floral Hill Cemetery, Hoopeston. Memorials may be made to a Pod from her vehicle in the 500 block of South Market. The burglary occurred between 9:30 and 11 p.m. Friday.

A 40-year-old man reported Saturday that a man selling door-to-door subscriptions took a check from his checkbook when the man left the room, leaving his checkbook with the salesman. The incident occurred in the 300 block of West Washington.

A 50-year-old Hoopeston man reported at 6:24 pm. Saturday that someone tried to remove a radio from his vehicle, which was in the 500 block of South Market.

Damon C. Butler, 23, of Indiana, was charged with leaving the scene of an accident after police investigated an accident at 3 p.m. Saturday in the 300 block of North Ninth Ave. A woman there came home to find her house had been damaged.

After the investigation, it was determined that Butler, in a 1987 Ford Mustang, was northbound when his car left the roadway and hit the house.
