Juvenile petitions were filed on two Hoopeston boys, ages 14 and 15, after an incident at 2:10 a.m. Saturday in the alley between the 100 block of East Lincoln and Washington. After spotting officers, the boys allegedly ran from the scene and were chased by police.

The boys were charged with criminal trespass, disobeying a police officer and illegal consumption of alcohol by a minor. Each was released to a guardian. A 22-year-old Hoopeston man reported at 10:29 a.m. Saturday that someone slashed two tires on his vehicle while it was in the 700 block of Wyman.

Darryl K. Hunter, 42, of Hoopeston, was arrested after police responded to a 911 call about an out-of-control juvenile at 1:40 p.m. Saturday in the 600 block of South Third St. He was charged with domestic battery on a complaint from a 14-year-old boy after witnesses said Hunter
