Local man arrested on California, Hoopeston investigation

William Baker charged on allegations from 14-year-old girl

A Hoopeston man was arrested Tuesday following a joint investigation of Hoopeston and Livermore, Calif., police.

William H. Baker, 26, of Hoopeston, was arrested at 12:08 p.m. Tuesday at the police station, after police executed a search warrant on his home in the 700 block of South Sixth Ave.

Baker appeared in Vermilion County Circuit Court Thursday where he was arraigned on one count of child pornography, a Class 1 felony, and one count of traveling to meet a minor, a Class 3 felony.

The child pornography charge resulted from evidence found by Hoopeston and Livermore police.

He was being held in the Public Safety Building in Danville in lieu of $100,000 bond, 10 percent to apply.

A preliminary hearing was set for September 10.

According to reports, Hoopeston police were contacted by Livermore police in July about the incident. Livermore police allege Baker met a 14-year-old girl in an internet dating chat line in January. The two exchanged phone numbers and Baker allegedly began sending nude photos of himself to the girl.

Livermore police say Baker flew to California in April, where he and the girl performed sexual acts.
The two stayed in contact until the girl tried to break off the relationship. Then, police allege, Baker threatened to tell the girl's parents about their involvement. The girl told her parents and police were notified.

Baker is expected to be extradited to California.
