Gone With the Wind to commemorate one-year ownership

Classic film to be shown at Lorraine

CineMajestic LLC will celebrate its first full year of operation of the Historic Lorraine Cinema with the presentation of the cinematographic David O. Selznick classic, Gone With the Wind, starring Clark Gable and Vivien Leigh on October 2-4.

"We'll have the exclusive national play of Gone With the Wind and I'm very excited to finally see this classic," said Joshua Caudle, owner of the Historic Lorraine Cinema. "I actually have never seen it because it just seemed a waste to see it on TV or even just at home. Now I can say it was the smart thing to do because I'll see the new print the right way, and I've already got a lot of people coming to town to get this treat, too."

"And its a great way to showcase all the work we've done on the Lorraine in the last year as the hands down most comfortable place to see a movie anywhere in the area. We're really expecting this to be well received and that our community is proud of the gem they have at the Lorraine."

The Lorraine Cinema originally opened as a live house in 1922 and features a full balcony, stage for live events, and classic Art Deco historic artwork throughout. Last year, all new seating was installed with an industry-leading five foot wide spacing between rows of seats to maximize comfort and eliminate visual obstruction for films.

Warner Brothers is sending one of the newest select prints, which has been remastered with pristine picture and modern full Digital Sound, including the elite 8 Channel SDDS Sound featured at the Lorraine, so the experience is anticipated to be first rate.

"We're celebrating a great first year of being here," said John Pauley, Lorraine Cinema manager. "Gone With the Wind hasn't been seen by most on the big screen, and with the new seats, the five foot wide aisles, sound and the lowest prices on tickets and snacks, we know we really have the best theatre and we want everyone to come and see that, too."

Gone With the Wind will be presented on Friday October 2 at 7:15 p.m.; Saturday October 3 at 2 p.m. and 7:15 p.m.; and Sunday October 4 at 2 p.m.

Tickets are $5 each and on sale now at the Lorraine Cinema box office.

Advanced ticket purchase is highly recommended.

Briefly

Retirement party

A retirement party will be held for Brenda Gaither, who is retiring as a Hoopeston Police Department dispatcher after 30 years.

The event will be held from 11 a.m.-1 p.m. Friday in the Hoopeston City Hall council chambers. Everyone is invited.

Lincoln-Douglas debate honored

Hoopeston Public Library is excited to announce an exhibit created to commemorate the sesquicentennial year of the Lincoln-Douglas debates. The exhibit will be at the library community room, 110 N. Fourth St., until Saturday. The exhibit began its tour through the state last year, giving residents the opportunity to learn of the seven debates that would challenge the thinking of the day, propel Lincoln into the national limelight and eventually alter the course of history.

For more information, call (217) 283-6711.
