WEEKEND CHARGE NURSE –
LONG TERM CARE
Join a Great Team at Hoopeston Regional Health Center!
 Our Nursing Home is currently recruiting for a Charge Nurse. The Charge Nurse position requires an Illinois RN or LPN license. In addition, some previous long term care or related experience is desired. The open position is a part time position and works 24 hours per week. The position covers two second shifts and one third shift each week. A highly competitive weekend compensation package is available for a commitment to work every weekend for a six month period. The weekend program does provide for a set number of weekends off during each six month commitment. If desired, an alternate schedule is available for working every other weekend.
 A competitive salary and benefit package and a great team of fellow employees are two things that make Hoopeston Regional Health Center a great employment choice. If you're interested in applying please pick up an application on site or you can e-mail, fax or send your resume to:

Police News

Michael R. Seidel, 24, of Hoopeston, was issued multiple tickets after an accident at 3:16 a.m. Monday at McFerren Park.

Police said Seidel, in a 1997 Ford F-150, was southbound on the west side of the park when he failed to negotiate a curve in the road and slid through the grass, destroying a bush. Seidel allegedly left the scene and was later arrested at Main and Market.

He was charged with failure to reduce speed to avoid an accident, failure to report a property damage accident to police, illegal transportation of alcohol and operating an uninsured motor vehicle.

Police are investigating a hit-and-run accident reported Monday. An unknown vehicle hit a parked 2002 Ford owned by Diane Pickett of Hoopeston.

Scott J. Howe, 24, of Hoopeston, was arrested at 11:15 p.m. Tuesday at Parkview Court. Wanted on an Iroquois County warrant for failure to appear/deceptive practices, he was turned over to Iroquois County authorities in lieu of $200 cash bond.

Hoopeston Public Library announced upcoming events

Hoopeston Public Library has announced upcoming events.

On Sunday, Sept. 13, Tom Sweeney will present the first in a series of local history readings, designed to inform and entertain.

As "Illinois Arts Educator of the Year" and winner of the National Federation for "Outstanding Educator in Speech, Debate and Theatre Arts," Sweeney brings both talent and expertise to this project that will delight local history enthusiasts.

He will begin the series with a selection from "Historical Sketches of the Wabash Valley," a work published in 1916.

Sweeney's presentation will begin at 2:30 p.m. Sunday in the library's meeting room. Refreshments will be served before the program ends at 4 p.m.

Tiny Tots story program will resume at 10:30 a.m. Friday, Sept. 18. The program is for preschool age children who are accompanied by a parent or caregiver.

For more information, call the library's children's department at (217) 283-6711.
