Hoopeston Regional Health Center adds dietary services

On October 1 the Hoopeston Regional Health Center added a very valuable person to their staff, a Registered Dietician.

Sowmya Gurukar, a native of India who has since relocated to Chicago, has officially joined the staff to provide dietary services.

These services are not just offered to the residents and patient of the Hoopeston Regional Health Center, they are also available for the people of Hoopeston and surrounding areas.

Gurukar completed bachelor's and master's degrees of science – both in nutrition related fields – before deciding to come to the United States to further her education. Once here, she pursued a second bachelor's degree in dietetics in New Jersey before going on to accrue an impressive resume of internships and work experience from some of the top hospitals in the United States.

She is loved by everyone who knows her because she takes the time to get to know everyone she is counsels, and has a magnetic personality. Despite her desires to continue in service, and continue her education, she doesn't spend all her time at work. She loves to play badminton, hike, travel, and practice her cooking skills on her husband, Rajath.

Gurukar works varying hours Monday through Thursday. To schedule a consultation with her contact your doctor for a referral or to learn more about any of the services offered by the Hoopeston Regional Health Center call 217-283-5531.

Hoopeston Public Library 'Food for Fines' starts December 1

Hoopeston area residents can pay off library fines and help a good cause when Hoopeston Public Library begins its annual Food for Fines drive on December 1.

During December, the library will accept canned goods, non-perishable food items and household paper products in payment of library fines. Each package donated will be worth $1 towards the payment of library fines. Donations are good for overdue material fines only, and cannot go towards the cost of lost items or other library fees.

Accepted items include canned food and non-perishable food items not past their expiration date.

All items received will be donated to the Grant Township Food Cupboard.

Items should be dropped off at the library, located at 110 N. Fourth St.

For more information, call the library at (217) 283-6711.
