Hoopeston accounting firm has successful review by peers

Russell Leigh and Associates announced it has successfully completed a rigorous peer review of its accounting and auditing practice. Reviewers concluded that the firm's system of quality control for the accounting and auditing practice in effect for the year ending December 31, 2009, has been suitable designed and complied with to provide reasonable assurance of performing and reporting in conformity with applicable professional standards in all material respects.

Russell Leigh and Associates participates in the Peer Review Program, a practice-monitoring program approved by the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants (AICPA), the national professional organization of CPAs. A firm participating in the Peer Review Program must have an independent review of its accounting and auditing practices every three years. The review was conducted under the auspices of the Illinois CPA Society following standards issued by the AICPA.

The peer review of Russell Leigh and Associates was performed by another independent CPA firm that qualified under the program's requirements for service as a reviewer.

Its rating of pass indicates Russell Leigh and Associ-
