Briefly

Lorraine interviews

Previously scheduled interviews for a documentary on the Lorraine Theatre will be held at 1 p.m. Friday at the theater. People with stories to tell about the history of the theater or the impact it has had on their lives are invited to attend.

Hoopeston Area High School media class plans to make a documentary of the interviews, along with footage of the theater and other information.

Veterans continued from other side

Danville area. Veterans are encouraged to take this opportunity to connect with others who understand and share their experiences and/or barriers.

VMEC offers services that may assist veterans in securing training and supportive services that lead to employment (i.e. counseling, healthcare, mentoring, etc.), and assist them in overcoming barriers that may deter the job search process, including career testing; resume development; job fairs; labor market information; internet-access to career-libraries and

Former cheerleaders sought

Hoopeston Area High School is looking for former Hoopeston cheerleaders who would like to perform the school song with the current HAHS cheerleaders before the boys varsity basketball game (Senior Night) at 7 p.m. February 19. If you are interested please contact the high school office 283-6661.

Prom dress drive

Hoopeston Multi Agency is accepting donations of online labor links; peer support groups; community-service and free facility usage by other veteran-serving agencies and non-profit groups; free-skills upgrading and retraining; regular college-level certificates/degrees; seminars; speakers; and special events to honor veterans.

Also, representatives from the DACC Financial Aid/Veterans' Affairs office will advise veterans about services available to them. Other community and social service organizations with programs intended specifically for veterans will be on hand, also.

For more information contact John Albers, Program Coordinator, at 217-443-8599, or jalbers@dacc.edu.
