Rossville residents gather for benefit to help friend in need

ROSSVILLE—For more than 30 years, Lance Deck has served residents as a village maintenance worker. More than that, he's been a friend to many.

"He'll do anything for you," said village Clerk Chris Pearson.

Pearson, along with other officials and residents, is working on an event to benefit Deck, who has been off work since suffering a brain aneurysm in October.

The benefit will begin at 3 p.m. Saturday at Hubbard Trail Country Club. Food will be available for purchase and will include pork burgers, hot dogs, baked beans, potato salad, beverages and desserts. Also scheduled are live and silent auctions and 50/50 drawing.

For entertainment, Aces and Eights band will play beginning at 8 p.m.

Pearson said Deck seems to be doing well and even made an appearance at a fundraising breakfast last weekend, staying about an hour and a half and visiting with many people.

On behalf of the entire Hoopeston Regional Health Center family, we would like to thank Dr. Lee for his many years of dedicated service to our community and congratulate him on his retirement.

As we say goodbye to a long-time member of the Hoopeston community, we would like to remind you that the physicians at Charlotte Ann Russell Medical Center are accepting new patients. Patients may be surprised to find some of the best doctors, physician's assistants, and nurse practitioners are right here in your hometown.

The medical team at Charlotte Ann Russell Medical Center offers a wide range of specialties and services – at times that are convenient for you. You will also find nearly all follow up services are available locally – no driving to another facility. Best of all, all of your healthcare dollars stay local and are used to reinvest back into your community.

So, as we say farewell and best wishes to Dr. Lee, you may find that you are looking for a new doctor. Why not try the providers at Charlotte Ann Russell Medical Center; Dr. Jay Colbert, Dr. Hilary Frescoln, Physician Assistants Keith Whitaker, Melia McCord, and Denny Price in Rossville, or Nurse Practitioner Pam Armstrong in Cissna Park.

For immediate assistance, in getting your medical records transferred or to make an appointment please call 217-283-5644.

Tell them that Harry sent you.

in the 900 block of West Honeywell. He was arrested on a complaint from a 25-year-old Hoopeston woman who alleged Watson struck her with a closed fist and refused to return car keys he took from her.

Watson was located, taken to the police station, then to the Public Safety Building in Danville to await a hearing.

A hooded denim jacket and tennis shoes were found at 7:45 a.m. Tuesday at McFerren Park. The owner may identify and claim them at the police station.

Hoopeston Public Library schedules 'March Madness' book sale

In a salute to March Madness, Hoopeston Public Library will conduct a book sale. You can join the "madness" by taking home a bag of books for just $1.

The library's lower level board room abounds with more than 500 new and used fiction and non-fiction books, videos and a few other surprises. Among the discarded library books are many new and one-of-a-kind titles that have been donated by friends and patrons. The sale runs from March 8 until the madness ends. Shop during regular library hours. For assistance carrying bags to a vehicle, shop from 1-3 p.m. Monday-Friday.
