Women Making a Difference seeks scholarship applicants

Women Making a Difference, a non-profit group of business and professional women from Hoopeston and the surrounding area, will award two $500 scholarships this spring to graduating senior girls from Hoopeston Area High School.

Applicants must be a Hoopeston Area Unit 11 graduating girl. Judging will be based on the student's grade point average, degree of financial need and the girl's desire to succeed. Eligible girls may pick up applications from guidance counselor Kay Brown at the high school.

The application must include an essay about the applicant and why she would like to receive this scholarship.

Applications must be returned to Kay Brown, Hoopeston Area High School, 615 E. Orange St., Hoopeston IL 60942, by April 7, 2010. Scholarships will be awarded on April 27 at the regular meeting of Women Making a Difference.

For more information, contact Kay Brown at (217) 283-6661 during regular school hours, or Marilyn Unger, 283-5337, in the evening.

Benefit sale held for former Hoopeston resident, teacher

Please help support Debbie Catron – 4th grade teacher at Garfield Elementary School in Danville, and a former Hoopeston resident. Debbie is the mother of Amy McCarty and grandmother of Jordan and Deacon McCarty.

Debbie has been fighting cancer for the past year. On October 15, she suffered a pulmonary embolism and underwent open heart surgery. On November 22, she awoke from her sleep and could not feel her legs. She has now been diagnosed with transverse myelitis, where her body attacked her own spinal cord. Debbie can no longer walk, or sit up without support, and is now living with her daughter, Amy (Catron) McCarty. To help her recover, she has had a feeding tube placed, and an ostomy bag. All of this within a matter of six months.

Unfortunately, insurance does not cover the costs associated with her care at home with special medical equipment, or special transportation to and from doctors' appointments for chemotherapy, radiation, and blood draws. Amy is her primary caregiver, and has lost her job as a result of the need to care for her mother.

Amy's friends are hosting a Tupperware fundraiser, where Debbie will receive 40 percent of total sales to help with medical expenses. Every dollar helps and is greatly appreciated.

Order forms are available from Susie Sheppard (217) 304-1961, Loni Gress (217) 283-9310, and Holly Eyrich, 283-7592. For additional information, contact Samantha Bruens, Tupperware dealer, at (217) 260-4102 or (815) 984-4102.

Deadline to order is March 31.

If you would like to send well wishes, please send them c/o Amy McCarty, 2279 County Road 1700 North, St. Joseph, IL 61873. Every little word of encouragement helps her make it through another day!

Debbie's family and friends thank you dearly for your support!
