The Andy Thomas I know

Andy, his three brothers, one sister and folks lived on a farm just outside Rossville. The whole family is known for their hard work and dedication to church, family and friends.

Andy moved away to go to college. When the opening for a youth minister at the Rossville Church of Christ became available, he took it. Even though it was supposed to be part time, Andy worked full time. When the funds became available, he was paid for full time.

Since Andy's return, he has slowly, with help, built a bridge between the generations. Andy has taught our youth that there is great joy in serving others. Each fall, there's a sign up sheet for anyone who needs help with raking leaves, etc. There's a Senior Banquet which the youth serve a dinner to anyone who considers themselves a senior. They go on service trips to help others with their projects. When they go to a Christian youth rally, they always to a slide show and take turns telling the congregation what they liked best and what they ## learned.

I've had the pleasure of being involved with the youth both in the classroom and on trips. Andy and the other chaperones always have stories to share from previous trips. We end up laughing until our sides hurt.

I've entrusted my children with Andy in the past and I would do it again in heartbeat.

I believe when the facts come to light during the trial, you'll all come to know and believe in the Andy Thomas I know.
