No injuries reported after car drives through Rt. 9 Casey's

No injuries were reported after a car crashed through the front of Casey's General Store, 115 E. Orange. Police said Pearl Newman, 88, of Hoopeston, in a 1997 Mercury, was trying to park at 1:46 p.m. Friday when the car accelerated, going through the building. Hoopeston Fire Department and Hoopeston Ambulance Service also responded. Ambulance personnel took Newman to Hoopeston Hospital, where she was released. Customers were not in the area where damage was sustained. The store was closed immediately after the accident, although employees remained on the scene to clean up debris.
