Diabetes health fair set at nursing home community room

You can never know too much about your health and maintaining your diabetes. This is why Hoopeston Regional Health Center wants to make sure you know that they are here to help you.

As a kickoff to the upcoming Diabetes Awareness Classes that will be taught by Sowmya Gurukar, Hoopeston Regional Health Center Dietician, HRHC will be hosting a Diabetes Awareness Health Fair on July 20, 2010. This event will be held from 4 p.m. to 7 p.m. in the Hoopeston Community Memorial Nursing Home Community Room.

There will be so much offered during the course of this evening. Attendees will be given the opportunity to talk to the HRHC about their current diabetic needs, set up a one-on-one consultation with her, and learn more about the upcoming classes.

Along with hearing from Sowmya, the health fair will include a diabetic friendly cooking demonstration, blood sugar and blood pressure checks, and other diabetes maintenance information. Elissa Hooper, HRHC athletic trainer, will show simple at home exercises for maintaining you health, and attendees will be able ask questions from one of the very qualified HRHC Providers. Come out to learn more about maintaining diabetes, while having fun and enjoying some diabetic friendly appetizers and food samples.

Letters to the Editor

I have been reading some spots about Scooter and Jerky and can't seem to get all the information read to figure out who is dating who, and who don't even care anymore.

Is someone mad at Scooter for drawing Jerky in the old days and claiming he did it, and you feel it belongs to the later crowd or what is the problem? If he drew it, he drew it. So what's up? Quit talking in riddles and say something.

Art Simpson of 1962, you are gonna have to explain this all to me like you use to do when we were in high school. Are we starting a charity to donate to? Why not get on with what you want to get on with. Geez.

I would be happy to buy something. Who is selling it?
David Catron
1962 graduate
Cuero, Tex.
