Chugging along
Members of Ian Bush's family watch as Paul Tutwiler installs a new train spring toy Thursday at McFerren Park. Ian, of Bondville, spent time with his grandfather, Bill, working on model trains. Ian died in 2008, at the age of 18. Since then, Bill Bush has worked with Hoopeston's East Central Illinois Model Railroading Club. Bush family members who attended the dedication of the toy, which bears a plaque in memoriam of Ian, include his father and step-mother, Mike and Kelli Bush; grandparents, Bill and Janien Bush; siblings Holly, Taylor and Mark Bush; and step-siblings Emily, Daniel and Benjamin Rogers, along with ECI Model Railroading members Chuck Pajor, Lenard Compton and Chad Thomas.

Catlin High School senior turns school project into informational session for area voters

Will Nesbitt, a senior at Catlin High School, will be hosting a candidates town hall meeting on Saturday, September 4th at 4:00P.M. The event will be held at the Catlin Fire Station located at 107 E. Davis Street in Catlin, IL.

Scheduled to appear at the meeting will be candidates for the U.S. House of Representatives, Republican Tim Johnson and Democrat David Gill; candidates for the Illinois State Senate, Democrat Mike Frerichs and Republican Al Reynolds and candidates for Illinois State Representative, Republican Chad Hays and Democrat Michael Puhr.

The town hall meeting began as a school service project for Nesbitt this past June. The senior service project came out of his Service and Community class and requires students to complete a thirty hour assignment that benefits the community.

“I wanted to do a project that I was passionate about because it makes the process more enjoy-
