A 12-year-old Hoopeston boy was arrested at 4:37 p.m. Friday at Bank and Main on a Vermilion County juvenile warrant. The boy was taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville.

Danny Ray Justice, 44, of Hoopeston, was arrested at 6:04 p.m. Friday at Parkview Court. He was charged with disorderly conduct on a complaint from a 45-year-old Hoopeston man, who alleged Justice galled him names.

Justice was released on a notice to appear.

Dylan R. Wallace, 20, of rural Hoopeston, was arrested after a traffic stop at 1:26 a.m. Saturday at Euclid and Route 9.

Police allege Wallace was driving at a high rate of speed before being stopped. He was charged with speeding, operating an uninsured motor vehicle and operation of a motor vehicle while registration is suspended or revoked.

Wallace was issued citations on the charges and his vehicle was towed from the scene. His license plates will be returned to the state of issue.

Michael Brost, of Fowler, Ind., was ticketed for operating an uninsured motor vehicle following an accident at 6:55 p.m. Saturday at Market and Lincoln.

Police said Brost, in a 1002 Chevrolet Tahoe, was struck by a 2004 Chevrolet Cavalier driven by Caden Peterson of Hoopeston, who failed to yield at the intersection.

Rafael Resendez, 25, of Hoopeston, was charged with disorderly conduct after an incident at 11:30 a.m. Saturday. He was charged on a complaint from a 22-year-old Hoopeston man, based on voice messages left on his phone.

Resendez was released on a notice to appear in Hoopeston City Court.

Dawn Rogers. 28, of Hoopeston, was ticketed for disobeying a yield sign after an accident at 8:05 a.m. Thurs-

P.O. Box 441, Hoopeston, IL. 60942

Police said Rogers, in a 1997 Dodge Dakota, was westbound on Chestnut when she allegedly failed to yield at South Fourth Street and hit a southbound 1998 Ford Taurus, driven by Dominique Ewaniuk, also of Hoopeston.

No injuries requiring medical attention were reported.

No tickets or injuries were reported in an accident at 10:10 p.m. Thursday in the 900 block of East Main.

Police said Alexander Cartwright, of Hoopeston, in a 1998 Ford van, was turning northbound from the alley off of South Market when he hit a 1998 Oldsmobile, driven by Jill Mitchell, of Boswell, Ind. Mitchell was northbound on Market.

No injuries were reported.

Robert H. Irvin, 20, of Hoopeston, was arrested after a 21-year-old Hoopeston man alleged Irvin took his X-box game controller and games from his home at 10:10 p.m. Thursday, while the man was visiting friends.

During the investigation, police allegedly found the missing items in Irvin's possession.

Irvin was charged with residential burglary and taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville. The items were returned to their owner.

Darvl K. Hunter, 43, of Danville, was arrested at 10:30 a.m. Friday in the 400 block of Seidel Avenue, Danville. He was charged with theft of a motor vehicle on a complaint from a 32-year-old Hoopeston woman who alleged Hunter took her vehicle from the Jerry's IGA parking lot, 1030 W. Chestnut, on September 21.

Hunter was taken to the Public Safety Building in Danville to await arraignment. The woman's vehicle has not been recovered.

A set of keys was found Friday at the McFerren Park

A Modern Fairy Tale

Goldilocks' Porridge Shop

Goldilocks opened a porridge shop after visiting the Three Bears.

She wanted to increase business and advertised in the longest-running publication in the land. Then the bill came. "These prices are too high and nobody bought my porridge," she said. She advertised in another publication but noticed they piled up in doorways and saw dogs treating them as toys. "My ads are not being seen and no one is buying my porridge," she said.

Then she placed her ad in Just the Facts. Sales skyrocketed so she started a chain of porridge shops, bought a jet and and lived happily ever after!
