County champs

The Lady Jerkers track team won the conference, won the County and qualified for the sectional, for the fifth year in a row. The leader of the team is junior Lauren Houmes, who was second in the Conference meet, won the County meet and made all region by finishing fourth in the regional meet which included schools like Rantoul, Bishop MacNamara, Herscher and Beecher. Four girls received all conference honors by finishing in the top 10. Houmes was second, sophomore Olivia Smith third, junior Erika Samet sixth and sophomore Kelsey Franke tenth. Three girls earned All County honors also by finishing in the top ten: Lauren Houmes first, Olivia Smith third, and Erika Samet sixth. The girls are very excited about this accomplishment and are determined to keep the streak going next year. Other members of the team who also were instrumental in this year's accomplishments are seniors Morgan Walder and Valerie Granados, junior Brooke Kinney, sophomore Sarah Dixon and freshman Lacey Geddes. The team is coached by Rich Stipp.
