Weather cooperates, downtown area site of cleaning, fun

Despite a chilly start to the Great American Cleanup, skies cleared, temperatures warmed and Hoopeston's downtown area was cleaned—and organizer Brenda Crusinberry smiled.

"I'm so happy to have such a good turnout," she said, looking down Main Street where volunteers representing various organizations in the city swept,, planted flowers, washed windows and cleaned up trash with grabbers, brooms, and in some cases, shovels.

After lunch, it was time for fun, with kids' games in Rotary Park, a poster contest in downtown businesses and a golf cart rodeo in the downtown parking lot.
