Man, two juveniles charged after late night crime spree

An 18-year-old Hoopeston man and two boys were arrested Tuesday in connection with acts of criminal damage and a burglary.

Christopher W. Page, 18, and the boys, ages 15 and 16, were arrested in connection with the following acts of criminal damage:

- A 41-year-old man from the 500 block of West Maple reported his fence was spray painted with graffiti.
- An 85-year-old man living in the 400 block of West Maple reported his fence was spray painted with graffiti.
- A 77-year-old woman from the 300 block of West Elm reported that her vehicle was spray painted with

• A representative of Goldsmith Partners, Inc., reported signs were spray painted with graffiti at the FMC building in the 100 block of East Maple.

Additionally, the trio was charged with burglary in connection with a break-in at Hoopeston Little League concessions stand in the 200 block of North Sixth Ave., where several items were reported stolen.

The activity occurred late Monday and the early morning hours Tuesday.

Page was taken to the Public Safety Building in Dan-

City to seek court action to inspect abandoned building

At Tuesday's Hoopeston City Council meeting, attorney Scott Perkins said he contacted the Vermilion County State's Attorney's office to gain entrance to an abandoned building, after several attempts to work with the building owner netted in no result.

The building, next to Harris Insurance, has bricks falling from it and is a safety hazard, officials said.

In other business, the council approved a plan commission decision rezoning Delmar Doeden's property from R-2 to A-1 to allow a new ATT cell phone tower to be erected there. The property is outside the city limits
