Wind farm plan scrapped

A Prairie Green Township wind-farm plan has been scrapped by the developer.

Developer Terra-Gen has canceled the planned Horse-shoe Wind Farm, citing market concerns. In a letter to landowners, officials cited a lack of a clear U.S. energy policy, reduced forecasts for load growth for most utilities and lack of meaningful progress on new transmission infrastructure in the area.

Miracle Tree

Grant Township Miracle Trees are available at Pamida and Global Fashions. Each tree contains the names, ages, sizes and preferences of underprivileged children for whom residents may purchase Christmas gifts.

Music Booster calendars

2012 Hoopeston Area Music Boosters All-Star wall and pocket calendars are now on sale. Wall calendars are $20 and feature pictures of students who participate in all music programs. With the purchase of a wall calendar, you are automatically entered into weekly and concert drawings for $100. Pocket calendars are also available for $5. Calendars are available from any band or chorus student (4th grade through high school), or Global Fashions.

Two new permanent trees you'll want to see!

The shape & dimension of one is like magic. It takes up less space and looks like a full tree!

The second has the best lighting and easiest assembly. You'll see the lights look like magic!

Police News

A 16-year-old Hoopeston boy was arrested after a traffic stop at 10:45 p.m. Wednesday at Seventh Avenue and West Washington. Originally stopped for failing to yield the right of way, the boy was charged with possession of cannabis intent to deliver 30-500 grams. He was also ticketed for disobeying traffic control device and failure to wear seat belt.

The boy was taken to the juvenile detention center in Danville.
