Hoopeston woman pleads guilty to financial exploitation

A Hoopeston woman pleaded guilty to two felonies concerning her caretaking of the elderly.

Pamela S. Pruitt, 43, was sentenced earlier this month after pleading guilty the financial exploitation of the elderly/disabled/$5,000-$10,000 and theft intent control $10,000-$100,000. Both are Class 2 felonies.

In return for her guilty plea, Pruitt was sentenced to 24 months' probation, restitution of $11,138.27, to be repaid over five years and barred from caring for anyone over 60 years old under any circumstances.

Library to hold Black Friday sale, starts teen study program

Area residents can start their Christmas shopping early at Hoopeston Public Library's annual Black Friday Book Sale, beginning at 9:30 a.m. Friday, Nov. 25.

Special prices will be offered on a wide range of new and used books for all ages, nearly-new VHS movies and other audio-visual materials. Many items are one-of-a-kind and have been specially selected for this sale.

The sale will be held in the lower level north board room. The library is located at 110 N. Fourth St. Friday hours are 9:30 a.m.-6 p.m.

State Sen. Cultra plans Listening Tour stop in Rossville

Legislators are often criticized for not being accessible to the public, a perspective State Sen. Shane Cultra (R-Onarga) is setting out to change during his upcoming three day, 12 city tour to meet with constituents.

"The idea is simple: I sit and listen to your ideas and suggestions to make Illinois better," Cultra said. "Our citizens need to be engaged and going out into the community just to listen is about the simplest and most effective way for a legislator to get input."

Cultra's tour will take place on November 28, 30 and December 1. Locally Cultra is scheduled to be at the Rossville Village Office from 3:30 to 4:30 p.m. November 28.

Other stops will be in Savoy, Gibson City, Paxton, Fairbury, Chenoa, Lexington, Normal, Dwight, Pontiac, Eureka and El Paso

"I would like to thank the village and city halls that are hosting the events. I hope that constituents will stop by and chat about the issues on their minds," Cultra said.

Police News

Police are investigating a hit-and-run accident reported at 1:17 a.m. Sunday at BJ's Pump, 1023 W. Main. An unknown vehicle hit a parked 2012 Dodge owned by Jennifer Baughn on Hoopeston.

The library is inaugurating a study group to provide extra help for teens who would like further support in proofreading their written assignments, including grammar, punctuation, mechanics and usage, and discover strategies for research.

The drop-in program, located in the Teen Room, is available Tuesdays, 4-5 p.m. for high school students and Wednesdays, 4-5 p.m., for middle school students.

Students may sign up for one or more 15 minute help sessions. All support is confidential.
