Teen study group

Hoopeston Public Library is inaugurating a study group to provide extra help for teens who would like further support in proofreading their written assignments, including grammar, punctuation, mechanics and usage, and discover strategies for research.

The drop-in program, located in the Teen Room, is available Tuesdays, 4-5 p.m. for high school students and Wednesdays, 4-5 p.m., for middle school students.

Students may sign up for one or more 15 minute help sessions.

All support is confidential.
