Band students looking forward to Liberty Bowl trip

Hoopeston Area High School marching band students are counting the days until their trip to this year's Liberty Bowl in Memphis, Tenn.

Band director Wendy Ronna presented the final trip itinerary at Thursday's school board meeting. "They can't quit talking about it, they're so excited," she said.

The trip will include not only a performance during the Liberty Bowl but also time with band instructors and interaction with other bands.

In unrelated business, the board:

- Each told of segments they attended at the annual school board convention last month. Sessions including information on bullying, technology and finances.

- Approved the district wellness policy and internet safety policy.

- Approved hiring Dulsey Young as John Greer classroom aide and Tim Walsh, bus driver.

- Approved Jennifer Anderson's resignations as John Greer classroom aide/6th-7th grade girls' basketball coach.

- Approved fourth grade teacher Gail Barnes' intent-to-retire letter, effective at the end of this year.
