MACY HAYES

Youngster benefits animals with ninth birthday party

Macy Hayes turned nine on May 19 and is a 4th grader at Honeywell Grade School. Macy decided she wanted to help animals that couldn't help themselves, so instead of getting toys, she celebrated her birthday with a party of family and friends where everyone brought donations of dog and cat food as

The kind people of Citizens For Animal Rescue and Adoption (C.A.R.A.) were overjoyed with the donation. Macy got to play with some of the animals while she was there which made her very happy.

Macy hopes her act of kindness will encourage others to follow in her footsteps.

Giving thanks for concern

This is a letter of great thanks...words can't really describe. You see, I'm an alcoholic who has been drinking everyday, from morning 'til night, everyday for years! Keeping what I though was in decent shape until one night when I got up to go into the kitchen. When I woke up, I was in Carle Hospital in Urbana. I thought I had been in a car wreck. I am out and home now, but on medication for the rest of my life and currently doing therapy at Hoopeston Hospital with a great staff. I can walk and am getting stronger everyday, thank God.

The real reason for this letter is to thank everyone for all the cards! I couldn't get them all out of my mailbox using two hands! I can't describe the feelings I felt at that moment. When I opened the door to the front porch, I couldn't even see the floor. There were cards from people long forgotten and people I don't even know. If I ever get weak, I just get them out and look at some of them; it's good medicine for me.

A special thanks to Mica and Jamie Alwardt family,

Letters to the Editor

their children designed, colored and worded their special cards!

Things are getting better every day now. I'm getting stronger, remember more, haven't had a drink in over two months and surviving. Thank you everyone for your support and prayers and most of all, thanks to Julie, my girlfriend; my sisters Suzanne and Alice—without them, I wouldn't be getting things done!

May God bless you all!

Sincerely, Bob McCrory

Cleanup thanks expressed

We would like to thank everyone who contributed to the success of the May 5 Great American Clean-up.

We had 46 helpers sign up to pick up litter around town and they brought back nearly 25 garbage bags of trash. They fanned out all over town, doing the parks, streets, parking lots and alleyways. We appreciated their hard work. A special thank you to the American Legion members that planted all of the petunias all over town. They look beautiful.

Whether you donated money, food, drink, time or garbage bags, you are appreciated!

Firemen say 'thank you'

We would like to thank everyone who supported us at our Annual Fireman's Cash Bash and Ball. A special thanks go out to Steve Compton and Allan Baker for the food. Also, The Hoopeston Jaycees and The Hoopeston Junior Women's Club for their assistance during the event. A big congratulations to all the winners!!

Thanks to all for making this our greatest fundraising event ever!!
