she captures not only the hearts of the children, but of the Captain, as well. Upon returning from their honeymoon, they learn Austria has been invaded by the Nazis. The family narrowly escapes over the mountains into Switzerland on the eve of WWII in one of the most thrilling, inspiring finales ever presented in a musical. This is uplifting theater, appealing successfully and without apology to the better side of our natures.

Beautiful music further embellishes this wonderful story with favorites such as "My Favorite Things," "Do-Re-Mi," "Climb Every Mountain," "Edelweiss," and "Sixteen Going on Seventeen."

Directed by Gail Lober of Cissna Park and choreographed by Kathleen Margevich of Hoopeston, ART is proud to have a cast representing communities throughout the region, including Westville, Watseka, Woodland, Rossville, Milford, Cissna Park and Hoopeston.

For more information and to order tickets, call the box office at (217) 283-6553 or visit ART's website, www.artcommunitytheatre.org.
