 First Presbyterian Church of Hoopeston held a Fun In The Sun Academy this summer. Included in the programs presented was a three-week karate class put on by the Okinawan School of Karate. Students who participated in the class learned life skills such as "Do It the First Time," "Go Above and Beyond" and "Clean Your Room," which was a parent favorite. Martial Arts techniques were taught during the course where students could earn stripes to participate in a graduation held at the Okinawan School of Karate. All those that earned five stripes and graduated on July 23 were, front, from left, Kaitlynn Lange, Gage Cary, Xander Cary and Mike Webb, owner of Okinawan School of Karate and back, Wyann Herman, Otto Smith, Cameron Zorns and Cory Theesfeld. Okinawan School of Karate is located at 208 E Main Street, Hoopeston.
